

What one commitment

are you ready to make ?

I am not on the phone but have listened (confess-ingly having to step away a bit)... I am a receipt of Lane's mentorship (his wife Lesa as well)...They have been a catalyst to my wife and my reinvention and Lane, specifically, has been a powerful force in my life. Thank you/him for this time and encouraging teaching!

From Bill

I feel so much better now about going back to school to a doctorate program of which I will be registering tonight for classes to begin in January.

Excellent dialogue we had today. All enjoyed, I could tell. I did for sure. Lane Michel seems like a great person and I was glad to meet him on the call.

Bill

I love today's dialogue a lot and it links a lot to what I am studying now. I felt so good that I did learn something in my two year study.

Thank you to you and Lane for a new world of vision and inspiration!:) Shiny - Munich/Shanghai ✓ I'll create a national meeting on energy.

generosity, trust, and personal responsibility - Joseph

...the dialogue was terrific. As usual, I walked away inspired and grounded.

Barbara

What did you gain from being here today? Thank You!

This is my first time joining your call, thank you for the oppourtinity.

I am trying to start my new energy healing business, and find it hard to stay postive and to just take the leap. I'm not knowledgable on how to start a business, all I know is that i believe in what i do and love what i do. Any suggestions? thank you

From Arsineh

I am going to complete my "vision quest" this year...

Finish my Masters in Ed and teach

I'll say "yes" to one thing that would ordinarily prompt a "no"; it might open a new door for me

Thank you for today Debbe & Lane ! Do continue what you're doing as it "is" the way of the future, to help raise each person to their potential. In whatever "innovative" manner that may be. It's with forums like this that it can start. - Leslie
